SYNOPSIS:

On 9/22/2020, at 0942 hours, Deputies responded to a radio call of a stabbing that occurred in the 12000 block of Woodside Avenue, Lakeside. The reporting party stated he had been stabbed in the abdomen by his adult daughter. The victim described his daughter, Hannah Wogatzke, as being the suspect. After the attack, Wogatzke immediately fled the residence. As a result of the attack, the victim sustained a stab wound to his left abdomen and a laceration to his left forearm. The victim was transported to a local area hospital where he is currently in critical but stable condition.

Deputies set up a perimeter around the apartment complex and the surrounding area. With the assistance of ASTREA and a NCPD K-9 unit, Deputies conducted a search of the complex and the surrounding area for Wogatzke. A citizen flagged down Deputies and stated he believed Wogatzke was hiding behind a dumpster inside of the complex. Deputies went to the location of the dumpster and noticed Wogatzke hiding in a tight space between the dumpster and a concrete wall. Deputies were able to take Wogatzke into custody without incident.

A search of Wogatzke's property, incident to arrest, revealed Wogatzke was in possession of pepper spray and a taser.

Wogatzke was placed under arrest for 245 (a) (1) PC, 3056 PC, 22810 (a)PC and 22610 (a) PC.
