SYNOPSIS:

On 03-13-19, at approximately 1:40 pm, a solo motorcycle collision occurred in the 1700 block of Hacienda Drive in Vista. The motorcycle was traveling eastbound on Hacienda Drive and failed to maintain lane position in a slight curve of the roadway. The motorcyclist collided into the south curb and a concrete street light pole. The 23 year old male motorcyclist was ejected from the motorcycle upon colliding into the street light pole. He was transported to Palomar Hospital where he succumbed to the injuries he received as a result of the collision. There was minor damage to the base of the street light pole from the collision. At this point it is unknown if the motorcyclist was impaired. The investigation is being handled by the Vista Station Traffic Division.
