SYNOPSIS:

On 04/23/19, just after 1042 hours, an Imperial Beach Deputy attempted to conduct a traffic enforcement stop on a vehicle for a stop sign violation on Granger Street in the City of San Diego. The vehicle failed to yield to law enforcement and a short pursuit ensued ending a short distance later. The vehicle yielded and the driver fled the area. A perimeter was set by sheriff's deputies, San Diego police officers and National City police K-9 officers. The subject was located in a residence in the 1200 block of Gaywood Street. The subject was evaluated by paramedics and was later transported to the hospital due to a complaint of difficulty breathing. The subject was later booked into San Diego Central Jail for the following charges: possession of stolen property, auto theft and felony evading.
