SYNOPSIS:

On Tuesday, August 13th, 2019, at about 2:25 P.M., US Marshalls requested assistance from San Diego Sheriff's Deputies in apprehending a suspect wanted for violating the terms of his parole. The suspect was identified as 37 year-old David Hernandez of San Diego.

Hernandez was observed in a stolen vehicle located at 661 Sweetwater Road in Spring Valley. When deputies arrived and tried to contact Hernandez he fled in the vehicle and a pursuit was initiated. The pursuit lasted about thirty seconds before Hernandez collided with two different vehicles that were not involved in the pursuit. Hernandez then fled on foot but was quickly apprehended. Hernandez, along with three citizens were transported to the hospital with apparent minor injuries. Hernandez was placed under arrest for 3056 PC - Parole Violation and 10851 VC - Driving a Stolen Vehicle.

During the pursuit, a deputy collided with a third uninvolved vehicle. The sole occupant of that vehicle was not injured and damage to both the Sheriff's vehicle and the citizen's vehicle was minor.
