SYNOPSIS:

On September 16, 2019, at about 5:05 AM, the San Diego County Sheriff's Communications Center received a call regarding a male subject, approximately 30-years-old, who was suffering from a gunshot wound to his leg. Deputies responded to a residence located in the 1900 block of Washington Street in Lemon Grove, where they discovered an adult male in a garage bleeding from a gunshot wound to his left leg. Deputies rendered medical aid and applied a tourniquet to the injured leg. The victim was transported by paramedics to Mercy Hospital where he underwent surgery. Detectives responded to the scene and are conducting further investigation into the incident.
