SYNOPSIS:

On 11/12/2019, deputies received a call of a battery at Lakeside Middle School. Upon investigation they discovered that Monique Martin entered the school and demanded to pick up her son. When administrators asked for her identification, Martin became combative and physically assaulted the Vice Principal. She then returned home and left her three-year old daughter at home after telling the neighbor to care for the child.

Martin then drove to Santee where she passed deputies at a high rate of speed Town Center Parkway. Deputies conducted a traffic stop on Martin. Martin became combative with deputies and force was used to take Martin into custody. Martin was arrested and transported to Sharp Grossmont Hospital for evaluation prior to being booked in to the Las Colinas Detention and Reentry Facility. Two deputies involved in the use of force sustained minor injuries and had complaints of pain. They were treated and released from a local hospital.

Martin was charged with 273PC and 243PC as well as 69PC.
