SYNOPSIS:

Be on the lookout for Brian Lee Danelson who was reported missing by his nephew in the North County on November 20th. Danelson was last seen on November 14th at the Harvest Farms Market in Valley Center. Family members say he left without his wallet and his cell phone was disconnected. He has a tattoo of a "tiger" on his inner left calf.

Deputies, along with Search and Rescue Volunteers utilizing a K-9, have searched a two-mile radius of Danelson's home in Valley Center. Sheriff's personnel have also checked with hospitals to make sure he was not admitted. This public notification is meant to expand the search countywide in case anyone comes into contact with Danelson.

If you see Danelson, please call the Sheriff's non-emergency line at (858) 565-5200.
