Drunk Decoy Operation – Encinitas & Solana Beach

Sheriff's Deputies and California Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (ABC) Agents conducted a joint drunk decoy operation in Encinitas and Solana Beach on Saturday, December 14th from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

For photos of today's operation, follow the Sheriff's Department on Twitter: @SDSheriff.

A plain clothes deputy entered a licensed establishment and acted obviously intoxicated. They smelled of alcohol, stumbled into the store, slurred their speech, dropped items, bumped into displays, etc. They then tried to purchase alcohol.

It is a misdemeanor in California to sell alcohol to someone who is obviously drunk.

If the clerk sold alcohol to the plain clothes deputy, deputies and ABC agents entered the store to explain why the decoy shouldn't have been sold alcohol.

A total of nine locations were visited during the drunk decoy operation. Two businesses sold alcohol to the decoy.

The operation was for educational purposes only and no enforcement action was taken. This operation is part of a $100,000 grant the Sheriff's Department received from ABC. These grants will continue to fund operations through June 2020.

Today's operation was aimed at keeping the public safe from impaired drivers and preventing other alcohol-related incidents.
