SYNOPSIS:

On 03/05/2018, at 2056 hours, Alpine deputies received a radio call of a domestic violence incident at 2646 Alpine Blvd. Apt. C. Sheriff's Dispatch advised via radio that the suspect later identified as Erin Cutter had assaulted her husband after he attempted to remove two shotguns from their bedroom. The family feared Cutter was a threat to herself. Deputies learned that Cutter had barricaded herself in an upstairs bedroom where there were two shotguns, a hand gun and hundreds of rounds of ammunition. Through further investigation it was determined there was probable cause for the arrest of Cutter for assault with a deadly weapon and felony domestic violence.

After numerous failed attempts of having Cutter peaceful surrender the Sheriff's Special Enforcement Detail responded to the scene along with the Crises Negotiations Team. After hours of attempted negotiations with negative results, the Special Enforcement Detail made entry into the residence and took Cutter into custody. Cutter sustained no injuries during the incident and no deputies were hurt.

Two shotguns, a handgun, and hundreds of rounds of ammunition were removed from the residence. Cutter was transported and booked into the Las Colinas Detention and Reentry Facility on charges of domestic violence and assault with a deadly weapon.
