SYNOPSIS:

In the early morning hours of 05-27-18, 4S Ranch Sheriff's deputies investigated a report of a suspicious circumstance at the Boys and Girls Club located at 16118 4S Ranch Parkway, in the unincorporated community of 4S Ranch.

20-year-old Da'Shon Morales of Moreno Valley, 19-year-old Jesus Ruiz Arias Jr of Escondido, and 20-year-old Fernando Vazquez Cruz, of Escondido, were contacted in and around a nearby vehicle. The three were detained pending further investigation. While on-scene, deputies found a safe which had been thrown down an embankment. Property belonging to businesses in the City of San Diego was also found nearby. The San Diego Police Department was contacted and they confirmed the businesses had been burglarized overnight.

Detectives from 4S Ranch, Poway, and the San Diego Police Department obtained search warrants for the vehicle and several residences. The three males were ultimately arrested for Burglary, Possession of Stolen Property, and several related felony crimes. Property related to the burglaries has been recovered.

These arrests are possibly related to several other burglaries that have occurred in various jurisdictions around the County of San Diego.
