On June 2, 2018 at about 4:08 p.m., a fire began in the brush on the north side of an apartment complex, located at the corner of Jamacha Road and Fury Lane, in the unincorporated area of La Mesa. Two of the apartment buildings, which included about 23 apartments and about 40 residents, were temporarily evacuated as a precaution. A section of Fury Lane was temporarily closed for fire personnel and equipment. The fire was contained to a 2.5 acre area and was extinguished by the San Miguel Fire Department. There were no injuries or damage to any structures. Sheriff's Bomb Arson detectives responded to conduct the investigation.
