Information for prior releases:

A man who fired a handgun at the ticket window of the Del Mar Thoroughbred Club has been identified as twenty-two year old Daniel Elizarraras of Escondido. Elizarraras was shot after he fired his weapon and a deputy returned fire. Elizarraras' condition has been listed stable and he is expected to survive. The shooting is currently being investigated by the Sheriff's Homicide Unit.

Just before 6:40 p.m. (on September 2, 2018), a man came to the ticket window at the Del Mar Fairgrounds at 2260 Jimmy Durante Boulevard. He wanted a ticket to this evening's concert. He was told no more tickets were available. An argument ensued and nearby deputies responded. The man pulled out a silver plated semi-automatic handgun and fired several shots into a crowded area. Deputies engaged and returned fire.

The suspect was transported to Scripps Memorial Hospital La Jolla and his condition is unknown at this time. To our knowledge, no one else was injured.
