The following information is fragmentary and has not been completely verified. It is based, in part, on hearsay and is intended for early information use rather than being a formal investigative report.

Updated information to prior release:

The deputies involved in this event have been identified as Deputy Lisa Crill, Deputy Casey Dow, and Deputy Matthew Poulin.

Deputy Crill has been employed with the San Diego Sheriff's Department for seven years and is currently assigned to the Santee Station. Deputy Dow has been employed with the San Diego Sheriff's Department for five years and is currently assigned to the Lemon Grove Station. Deputy Poulin has been employed with the San Diego Sheriff's Department for five years and is currently assigned to the Lemon Grove Station.

Information from prior release:

On January 6, 2020, at about 6:18 p.m., deputies from the Sheriff's Lemon Grove Station responded to a report of a male threatening to commit suicide inside of a residence in the 2100 block of Camino De Las Palmas, Lemon Grove. At about 6:28 p.m., three deputies contacted the subject, thirty-four-year-old Shane Felix, inside the residence. When the deputies made contact with him, Felix removed what appeared to be a revolver from inside his jacket. A confrontation ensued, which culminated in a deputy-involved shooting involving all three deputies. The facts surrounding the confrontation are currently under investigation by the Sheriff's Homicide Unit.
