SYNOPSIS:

At about 0800 hours this morning, administration from Oak Glen High school learned of a potential school threat from a suspended, 15-year-old student. Both Oak Glen High School and Valley Center High schools were placed in lock-down. Deputies from the Valley Center Substation responded and quickly identified, located, and arrested the juvenile. A search of the juvenile's home was conducted. No weapons were located. Both high schools were released from lock-down at about 0915 hours. The juvenile was booked into Juvenile Hall.
